

ST.GALLEN SYMPOSIUM

Programme of the 53rd St. Gallen Symposium on "Confronting Scarcity" from 2-3 May 2024

May 2, 2024

09.00 - 09.15 | Ceremony Session

Opening Ceremony of the 53rd St. Gallen Symposium

Join us for the 53rd St. Gallen Symposium on "Confronting Scarcity" and engage in constructive and impactful dialogue across different generations from around the world.

Speakers

- Sophia Gampp - Head Organizing Committee, St. Gallen Symposium
- Deborah Walt - Head Organizing Committee, St. Gallen Symposium
- Alisha Thüler - Head Organizing Committee, St. Gallen Symposium
- Lord Brian Griffiths of Fforestfach - Conference Co-Chair, St. Gallen Symposium

09.15 - 10.15 | International Plenary Session

Towards a New Era of Protracted Scarcity?

11.00 - 12.00 | Co-Creation Session

Leaders of Tomorrow and Aspiring Leaders Talk

Engage in 4-5 cross-generational, off-the-record conversations on a main guiding question. These intimate dialogue formats match a senior business or policy executive with a group of 8-10 Leaders of Tomorrow to inspire decision-making with the views and concerns of the next generation. (By invitation only)

11.00 - 12.30 | Closed-Door Round Tables

Closed Door Round Table on Circular Economy

Engage with a selected group of topic experts on a specific use case of our annual theme. Co-hosted with leading academic institutions, selected roundtables feed into White Papers, which summarise and distill actionable recommendations in the follow-up to SGS. (By invitation only)

"St. Gallen Talks" together with ZEIT Online

In collaboration with ZEIT ONLINE, this format uses the award-winning concept of "Deutschland Spricht / Europe Talks" to match participants with different points of view on controversial, intergenerational issues. At a time of increasing polarisation, participants engage in an open and engaging conversation with someone who thinks differently.

11.00 - 12.15 | Spotlight Insight Session
